

Charter

The purpose of the Faculty Development Committee is to consider applications from eligible faculty members for institutional faculty development funds, including requests from faculty for funding of further education (i.e., tuition for a faculty member to earn a Master's degree) or to attend and make platform presentations or present posters at professional research and/or education conferences. In addition, the committee offers recommendations to the Provost regarding applications for sabbatical leave.