

Charter

As a subcommittee of the Faculty Senate, the Instructional Programs Committee (IPC) represents the faculty role in shared governance as it relates to instructional program development and curriculum revision. Typically, this includes reviewing new programs, program revision, program deactivation, new courses, course revision, and course deactivation proposals.

The Committee shall assess its function periodically and develop subcommittees as deemed appropriate to meet its mission.